DETAILED ACTION

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 6, 7 and 19-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Day et al.

There is disclosed in Day a popcorn popper comprising: a cabinet 14, 16; a popping kettle 18; a popped popcorn bin (bottom area of cabinet section 16); a filter passage 308 having an inlet 306 in an upper portion of the cabinet proximate the kettle; a plurality of filtration stations 438, 442 within the filter passage for removing particulates and oil from a vapor effluent issuing from the popping of popcorn in the kettle; a blower 454 for sucking vapor effluent (by creating a vacuum) into the inlet and through the passage discharging filtered effluent into the area surrounding the cabinet; and wherein the cabinet has two sides (left and right) which are each open for operator access.

In regards to claims 2 and 23, the rate at which the filtered effluent discharges from the blower is an operational preference and fails to disclose any structural limitations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4, 5, 8-17 and 34-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Day et al. in view of Hansen.

Hansen discloses, within a cooking apparatus, the use of a filter passage 4, 11, including within the passage a first oil removing filter 19 and a second particulate removing filter 20, a filter passage inlet 5, a blower 7 for sucking vapor through the passage and past the first and second filters, and a blower effluent outlet 8, 24 which discharges into a cooking apparatus cabinet.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute the filtration stations of Day with the first and second filters taught in Hansen, in order to better clean the vapor passed through the filter passage.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute the blower arrangement of Day with that taught in Hansen, in order to improve the movement of vapor through the filter passage and control the discharge of cleaned air.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 18 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 29 July 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the prior art fails to disclose the inlet of the filter passage in fluid communication with, but unconnected from the kettle.

In response to this argument, it should be noted that while the outlet 306 of Day is in fluid communication with the pot 18, it is actually attached to the lid of the pot and not the pot itself. Thus, it is unconnected, physically, to the pot, as per applicant's claim language.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
